Target Audience

- Registered nurses preparing for certification in Nursing Professional Development
- RNs new to the NPD role
- RNs desiring additional education in the NPD processes

Sponsor

ANPD & Organization of Healthcare Educators acknowledge the generous support of Western Governors University for this activity. WGU had no role in the planning of this educational activity.

Program Outcome

This program is intended to enable the learner to successfully complete the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) generalist examination in nursing professional development. This course also enables novice NPD practitioners to develop foundational knowledge for the specialty practice.

Greg Durkin, MEd, RN-BC

Greg Durkin is a Sr. Professional Development Specialist & Program Manager for Nursing Education at Boston Children's Hospital. ## Pre- and Post-test Information

Earn up to two (2) additional contact hours by taking the NPD Cert Prep Course Pre- and/or Post-test in the ANPD Professional Development Center. Each test, which contains 60 questions, awards one (1) contact hour. Measure your progress made during the course by comparing your pre-test score with your post-test score. In addition, you can see which domains should be areas of focus when preparing for the certification exam. Instructions to access the Pre- and Post-test will be provided to attendees two (2) weeks in advance of the course.

Continuing Nursing Education – 16 Contact Hours

Association for Nursing Professional Development is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Course Completion

Attendance at each full day required to receive contact hours. Partial credit may be awarded for each day. Notify the instructor if partial credit is needed.

Completion of the online course evaluation is required.

Conflict of Interest

No faculty or planners have a conflict of interest with the development or implementation of this course.
